ABOUT THE COURSE

Whenever foreign diplomats are posted to a new country for the first time, they have a brief theoretical knowledge about the country's government and bureaucracy but lack an understanding of the actual process and procedures involved in the functioning of the host's system of governance. There is no formal introduction available for them to assimilate and acclimatize themselves to this new environment. This course, titled, "The Indian Government Explained: A Short Course for Diplomats of Embassies and High Commissions in India", conducted by senior officers of the Indian Parliament and Government has been introduced with a view to provide international diplomats, a thorough introduction to the functioning of India's democratic system of governance. The 2 day training course will give them a highly immersive experience about the governance procedures of India.

ABOUT PARI, NEW DELHI

Parliamentary and Administrative Research Institute (PARI) was established with a view to undertake meaningful research on parliamentary and administrative issues in India and provide capacity building courses on Parliamentary procedure which enable the stakeholders to deal with governance efficiently. The capacity building courses are tailor-made for officers of the Autonomous bodies and PSUs under the central government. Further in order to understand the nuances of governance in the UK, PARI brought out a Joint International course on Public Policy Management in Parliamentary Democracy, Public Health Policy and Anti-Corruption in Parliamentary Democracy. The Faculty at the PARI is headed by Sh. S. Bal Shekar, Former Secretary General, Lok Sabha. The guest faculty includes Dr. Yogendra Narain, IAS (Retd.) and former Secretary General, Rajya Sabha, Dr. P.P.K. Ramacharyulu, Secretary, Rajya Sabha, Sh. Mukul Pandey, Addl. Secretary, Rajya Sabha, Sh. J. Sundriyal, Joint Secretary, Rajya Sabha among others.
