LEADERSHIP PROGRAMME FOR MENTAL HEALTH SYSTEMS DEVELOPMENT AND PUBLIC HEALTH POLICY

Why this Programme?

Mental Health is becoming a dominating public health issue in the world and a report by the World Health Organization (WHO) revealed that 7.5 per cent of the Indian population suffers from mental disorder but unfortunately but very few experts are available to handle these cases. Consequently, the International Course titled Leadership Programme for Mental Health Systems Development and Public Health Policy is designed to help the officers responsible for tackling this major national problem. The one-week course in New Delhi & Melbourne will give participants exposure to Mental Health Laws, Policies, and services provided to vulnerable groups in society and their social inclusion, as well as the opportunity to compare mental health systems operating in India and Australia. This course will immensely help in Capacity Building of the officials working in the area of Mental Health to strengthen mental health systems.

About the Course

Leadership Programme for Mental Health Systems Development and Public Health Policy is a comprehensive capacity building exercise in efficient mental healthcare delivery for developing countries. It addresses the fundamental problems plaguing the mental healthcare infrastructure of India. The course is structured to take a multidisciplinary approach in tackling the sensitive issue of mental healthcare in India.

About Global and Cultural Mental Health Unit, University of Melbourne

The Global and Cultural Mental Health Unit, University of Melbourne works to improve mental health and reduce mental illness in low resource settings and among vulnerable populations in Australia and internationally. Prof. Harry Minas, Head, Global and Cultural Mental Health Unit is a world renowned mental health expert.

ABOUT THE PARI TRAINING INSTITUTE

PARI Training Institute was established with a view to undertake meaningful research on parliamentary, administrative and policy issues in India and provide capacity building courses which enable the stakeholders to deal with policy formulation and implementation efficiently. The capacity building courses which include Public Policy Management, Public Health Policy Administration and Leadership Programme for Mental Health Systems Development and Public Health Policy are tailor-made for Health Administrators of the Central Government, State Government, Autonomous bodies and centrally aided institutions. The Faculty at the PARI is headed by Sh. S. Bal Shekar, Former Secretary General, Lok Sabha.
