Joint International Course on Public Policy Management in Parliamentary Democracy (New Delhi + Perth)

JUSTIFICATION OF THE COURSE

Joint International Course titled Public Policy Management in Parliamentary Democracy is designed to help officers responsible for designing and implementing Public Policy in the country. The two days course in New Delhi with PARI will enlighten the participants about the basics of Public Policy Management in India and 5 days in Perth, Australia will give them the exposure and chance to compare both the systems operating as the best examples of Parliamentary Democracy. Public Policy Management is purely a management course within a Parliamentary System with a view to provide Capacity Building to the officials working with the Government in order to analyse all aspects of various policies that help in the governance of India.

ABOUT PARI, NEW DELHI, INDIA

Parliamentary and Administrative Research Institute (PARI) was established with a view to undertake meaningful research on parliamentary and administrative issues in India and provide capacity building courses on Parliamentary procedure which enable the stakeholders to deal with governance efficiently. The capacity building courses are tailor-made for officers working in Central Government Ministries/Departments, Autonomous Bodies, PSEs & Legislative Assemblies and State Governments. We have recorded a successful execution of two international capacity building courses namely : i. The Leadership programme on Public Health Policy Administration in Parliamentary Democracy in collaboration with DODS Parliamentary Communication, London and, ii. The Leadership Programme on Mental Health Systems Development and Public Health Policy in collaboration with School of Population and Global Health, University of Melbourne, Australia. Further in order to understand the nuances of governance in Australia, PARI has brought out a Joint International course on Public Policy Management in Parliamentary Democracy in collaboration with The John Curtin Institute of Public Policy, Perth, Australia for officers working in Central Government Ministries/Departments, Autonomous Bodies, PSEs & Legislative Assemblies and State Governments.

ABOUT THE JOHN CURTIN INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC POLICY, PERTH, AUSTRALIA

The John Curtin Institute of Public Policy (JCIPP) is a peak body for research, education and discussion in public policy and administration. It takes a multi-disciplinary approach to addressing challenges in this area reflecting their complexity as well as the unique capacity of universities to play a key role in addressing them. The Institute's mission is: To undertake high quality research of national and international significance on current and emerging public policy and governance issues; To provide relevant, quality and contemporary education tailored to public sector professionals; and To promote public debate and discussion on a range of current and emerging public policy issues. The Institute engages with issues of particular significance to Western Australia within a national and international context. It draws on expertise from a wide variety of academic disciplines including political science, economics, sociology, anthropology and public management. It has particular expertise in federalism and intergovernmental relations; social policy and the welfare state; regional development; and public sector management. The JCIPP manages a higher degree by research program, offering an MPhil and PhD qualification for students undertaking research into public administration and policy. The Institute conducts a major program of public affairs, providing Western Australia with a major forum of ideas, discussion and debate in relation to all issues of public policy.
