INTRODUCTION

A proper vigilance management is the key to good governance. The Central Vigilance Commission has been playing a pivotal role in inculcating ethical values and integrity in the public servants. The mission and vision of the CVC has been to promote integrity in the governance process by creation of a credible deterrence against corruption through prompt enforcement of anti-corruption laws and regulations; Undertaking effective preventive measures to minimize the scope of corruption and Raising public awareness to inculcate ethical values and reduce society's tolerance towards corruption. PARI Training Institute with a view to supplement the efforts of the CVC towards building a corruption free governance has come out with course on Vigilance Management for Vigilance officers.

ABOUT PARI

PARI Training Institute was established in 2017 with a view to undertake meaningful research on parliamentary and administrative issues in India and provide capacity building courses on Parliamentary Procedures, Public Policy Management, Public Health Policy Administration, Anti-Corruption and Vigilance Management, Anti-Corruption and Good Governance, Gender Sensitisation, Mental Health: First Aid etc. which enable the stakeholders to build their capacity and be efficient in public service. The capacity building courses are tailor-made for the mid and senior level officers/executives working in the ministries/departments, Autonomous Bodies, CPSEs under the Central and State governments including State Assemblies. PARI has organised joint International courses on "Anti-Corruption in a Parliamentary Democracy" in collaboration with DODS, London and an online course on Hospital Procurement Vigilance. Both these courses were highly appreciated by the beneficiaries. We have successfully organised 6 batches on Vigilance Management and 13 batches on Preventive Vigilance (As per the module of CVC) in the past and over 50 organisations had nominated their officers to attend these courses from the vigilance and non vigilance departments.
