PARI with the aim of fostering meaningful change by undertaking significant research on parliamentary and administrative issues has introduced three innovative courses namely- 'Preventive Vigilance and Good Governance', 'Vigilance Management' and 'Preventive Vigilance' aimed at imparting essential skills and knowledge to government officials.

ENHANCING ORGANIZATIONAL INTEGRITY THROUGH VIGILANCE TRAINING PROGRAMME

INTRODUCTION

In today's complex and dynamic organizational landscape effective vigilance practices play a critical role. Instances of corruption, fraud, and misconduct can undermine organizational integrity, tarnish reputations, and incur significant financial and legal repercussions. Thus, it is of utmost importance that organizations are aligned with the guidelines and expectations set by the Government of India. One of the pivotal initiatives by the Indian Government is "Viksit Bharat by 2047," aimed at propelling India into a developed nation by its hundredth year of independence. This comprehensive endeavor focuses on key areas of social and economic development while promoting good governance practices- making public systems more transparent, accountable and efficient. To supplement this supreme goal, the Mission Karmayogi must be reflected upon as it focuses on effective capacity building of civil servants and making them future ready with right knowledge, skills and attitude required to handle 21st century challenges.

Parliamentary and Administrative Research Institute (PARI) with the aim of fostering meaningful change by undertaking significant research on parliamentary and administrative issues has introduced three innovative courses namely- 'Preventive Vigilance and Good Governance', 'Vigilance Management' and 'Preventive Vigilance' aimed at imparting essential skills and knowledge to government officials. These courses are designed to enhance their understanding of vigilance and related administrative practices and equip them with the tools necessary to promote transparency, integrity, and accountability within their respective domains. Through these initiatives, PARI contributes to the ongoing efforts towards building a more efficient, accountable, and transparent governance framework in India.

ABOUT PARI

PARI- Parliamentary and Administrative Training Institute was established in 2017 with a view to undertake meaningful research on parliamentary and administrative issues in India and provide capacity building courses on Parliamentary Procedures; Privileges and Protocols; Parliamentary Committee System; Public Procurement; Hospital Procurement; Ethics and Good Governance; Preventive Vigilance; Disciplinary Proceedings; Vigilance Management; Gender Sensitization; and many more. PARI has organized 52 domestic training courses with participants nominated from reputed Ministries/Departments, Autonomous Bodies, CPSEs under the Central and State governments including State Assemblies. The tailor made courses enable the stakeholders to build their capacity and be efficient in public service.

COURSE 1

PREVENTIVE VIGILANCE AND GOOD GOVERNANCE

For Vigilance Officers and HR Executives working in Gol Ministries/Departments, CPSEs and Autonomous Bodies

COURSE INTRODUCTION

Proper vigilance management is the key to good governance. The Central Vigilance Commission has been playing a pivotal role in inculcating ethical values and integrity in the public servants. The mission and vision of the Central Vigilance Commission has been to promote integrity in the governance process by creation of a credible deterrence against corruption through prompt enforcement of anti-corruption laws and regulations; Undertaking effective preventive measures to minimize the scope of corruption and raising public awareness to inculcate ethical values and reduce society's tolerance towards corruption. HR and CVO roles often intersect, particularly in issues concerning employee conduct, discipline, and compliance.
